4. For over ten years, first as a member of the law firm of Richardson, Patrick, Westbrook and Brickman and, since January 1, 2011, in my own firm, I have represented borrowers in class action litigation relating to second mortgage loans originated by Community Bank of Northern Virginia and Guaranty National Bank of Tallahassee, which loans were purchased by Residential Funding Company, LLC. Those lawsuits became part of the multidistrict proceeding pending in the United States District Court for the Western District of Pennsylvania captioned as In Re: Community Bank of Northern Virginia Second Mortgage Lending Practice Litigation, MDL No. 1674, Case Nos. 03-0425, 02-1201, 05-0688, 05-1386 (the "MDL Class Action"). And I have represented those same borrowers since May 14, 2012 as part of what is now known as the Kessler Settlement Class pursuant to the continuation of the noted class action claims against RFC in this bankruptcy proceeding.

5. Set forth below on an hourly basis are my legal services rendered on behalf of Kessler Class Members in this case since forming my own law firm and the lodestar value of those services.

6. The schedule attached is a summary indicating the amount of time spent by me in this litigation, and the lodestar calculations based on my current rates for matters of this type. All the work was done by me. See Exhibits 1 & 2.

8. As set forth in Exhibit 2, the total number of hours expended on this litigation by me since May 14, 2012 in the bankruptcy litigation through October 31, 2013 is 25.5 hours. Based on the listed hourly rates for me, the total lodestar through that period of time is $15,300.00.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
